- (7) The Chief Justice may issue practice directions for the purpose of -

shall be commenced by summons in Form Nos. 7, 7A or 7B of the Appendix, as may be appropriate.

(4) Every summons must state the date and time at which the respondent is required to attend before the Court and state the nature of the relief sought and the grounds upon which the applicant claims to be entitled to such relief, unless the grounds are contained in an affidavit served with it.

(5) A summons by which a person seeks an affiliation order or maintenance order shall be issued by the Chief Clerk (in his capacity as an ex officio Justice of the Peace) only if the applicant has sworn an affidavit containing his complaint.

(6) Every plaint or summons shall be issued in the manner prescribed by GCR Order 5, rules 1(3) to (6), except that the requirements of paragraph (4)(d) shall not apply.

(7) The Chief Clerk shall create a file containing, in chronological order, an office copy of every plaint or summons issued by the Summary Court which shall be referred to as "The Register of Plaints and Summonses" and shall be open to public inspection upon payment of the fee prescribed by Rule 10(3).

(8) The Chief Clerk shall place an office copy of every plaint or summons on the Register of Plaints and Summonses.

(9) Nothing in this rule shall prevent an applicant from issuing an ex parte summons for an interim domestic order.

4. Service of Originating Process

(1) GCR Order 65 shall apply to proceedings pending in the Summary Court as it applies to proceedings pending in the Grand Court.

(2) Every plaint or summons must be served personally on each defendant or respondent, unless the Court has made an order for substituted service pursuant to GCR Order 65, rule 4.

(3) Where a defendant or respondent's attorney indorses on the plaint or summons a statement that he accepts service on behalf of the defendant or respondent, the plaint or summons shall be deemed to have been duly served on that defendant or respondent on the date on which the indorsement was made.

(4) A plaint issued after the commencement date shall be deemed not to have been duly served unless it was accompanied by an acknowledgment of service form in Form No. 2.

(5) Due service of a plaint may be proved in any of the following ways -

- (a) by filing a copy of the plaint upon which has been indorsed a signed statement of the date, time and place of service;
- (b) by filing an affidavit of service; or
- (c) if the defendant has filed an acknowledgment of service, upon the date specified or, if no date is specified, upon the date upon which it was filed.

5. Service of Process out of the Jurisdiction

(2) Leave to serve a plaint out of the jurisdiction may be given if the Court is satisfied that -

- (a) the claim falls within the scope of GCR Order 11, rule 1(1)(a), (d), (e) or (f);
- (b) the plaintiff has a good arguable case on the merits; and
- (c) the plaintiff has a reasonable prospect of enforcing any judgment either within or without the jurisdiction.

(3) Leave to serve a summons out of the jurisdiction may be given if the Court is satisfied that -

- (a) the applicant has a prima facie right to the relief sought against the respondent; and
- (b) the applicant will be entitled to enforce the Court's order in the country in which it is sought to serve the respondent pursuant to the law of that country.

(4) GCR Order 11, rules 5 and 6, shall apply to the service abroad of plaints and summonses as they apply to the service abroad of writs.

6. Acknowledgment of Service of Plaintiff

(1) Every defendant to an action commenced by plaintiff must complete and file an acknowledgment of service form in Form No. 2 of the Appendix within 14 days from the date upon which the plaintiff was served on him.

(2) An acknowledgment of service form must be signed by -

- (a) the defendant in person;
- (b) the defendant's attorney; or
- (c) if the defendant is a company, one of its directors or other duly authorised officers.

- (3) An acknowledgment of service must specify -
  - (a) in the case of a defendant acknowledging in person, the address of his place of residence and, if his place of residence is not within the jurisdiction or if he has no place of residence, the address of a place within the jurisdiction at or to which documents for him may be delivered or sent;

- (b) in the case of a defendant acknowledging service by an attorney, a business address of his attorney within the jurisdiction; or
  - (c) in the case of a defendant which is a company, the address of its registered office or its place of business within the jurisdiction to which documents for it may be delivered or sent.
- (4) On receiving an acknowledgment of service the Chief Clerk must -
- (a) affix to the acknowledgment an official stamp showing the date on which he received it;
  - (b) place the acknowledgment on the Court file; and
  - (c) make a copy of the acknowledgment and send it to the plaintiff or his attorney at his address for service.
- (5) An acknowledgment of service must state -
- (a) whether or not the defendant disputes the plaintiff's claim;
  - (b) if the defendant does not dispute the claim, whether or not he needs time to pay and, if so, how long;
  - (c) if the defendant intends to defend the claim in whole or part, full particulars of his defence.
- (6) A defendant in any action commenced by plaintiff who alleges that he has a claim against a plaintiff in the action in respect of the same or some related matter may, instead of bringing a separate action, make a counterclaim in respect of that matter, in which case full particulars of his counterclaim must be included in his acknowledgment of service.

(7) Nothing in this rule shall prevent a defendant from giving particulars of his defence or counterclaim in the form of a separate pleading, provided that such pleading is filed at the same time as his acknowledgment of service.

7. Default Judgment

(1) If the defendant fails to file an acknowledgment of service which states his intention to defend the claim and contains full particulars of his defence within the time prescribed by Rule 6(1), the plaintiff may make application to the Chief Clerk in Form No. 3 of the Appendix for a default judgment.

(2) In the case of a plaint indorsed with a claim for a liquidated demand only, the plaintiff may apply for a final judgment in Form No. 4 for -

- (a) the principal sum claimed in the plaint;
- (b) interest, provided that the plaint has been indorsed with a claim for interest pursuant to GCR Order 6, rule 2(e) or (f), as the case may be; and
- (c) fixed costs.

(3) In the case of a plaint indorsed with a claim for unliquidated damages, the plaintiff may apply for an interlocutory judgment in Form No. 5 for damages to be assessed and fixed costs.

(4) If, by his acknowledgment of service, the defendant admits or does not dispute part of the claim, the plaintiff may apply for a default judgment in respect of that part and either -

- (a) apply to fix a date for the trial of the remaining part of the claim; or
- (b) discontinue the action as regards the remaining part of the claim.

(5) If the action is commenced against more than one defendant, the plaintiff may apply for a default judgment against those who fail to serve acknowledgments of service and proceed with the action against the others.

(6) The Court may, on such terms as it thinks just, set aside or vary any judgment entered pursuant to this Rule.

8. Trial of Actions Commenced by Plaintiff

(1) If one or more of the defendants has served an acknowledgment of service stating his intention to defend and containing full particulars of his defence, the plaintiff may apply in Form 6 to the Chief Clerk to fix a trial date.

(2) Notice of the trial in Form No. 6 shall be served on every defendant who has filed an acknowledgment of service containing notice of intention to defend and particulars of his defence.

(3) If, when the trial is called on, the plaintiff fails to appear, the plaint may be struck out, without prejudice to its restoration on the direction of a Magistrate, and the Court may proceed with the trial of any counterclaim in the plaintiff's absence.

(4) If, when the trial is called on, the defendant fails to appear, the Magistrate may proceed with the trial of the action in his absence.

(5) Any judgment obtained where one party does not appear at the trial may be set aside by the Court, on the application of that party on such terms (including a requirement that the amount of the judgment be paid into Court) as the Magistrate thinks fit.

(6) Any party wishing to adduce in evidence any document must have available copies for the use of the Magistrate and every other party.

(7) The Magistrate may, if he thinks it expedient in the interest of justice, adjourn a trial for such time and upon such terms, if any, as he thinks fit.

(8) The trial of every action shall take place in open court.

9. Hearing of Applications Commenced by Summons

(1) Where any party to a summons fails to attend on the first or any resumed hearing thereof, the Court may proceed in his absence if, having regard to the nature of the application, it thinks it expedient so to do.

(2) Before proceeding in the absence of any party the Court may require to be satisfied that the summons or, as the case may be, notice of the time appointed for the resumed hearing was duly served on that party.

(3) Where the Court hearing a summons proceeds in the absence of a party, then, provided that any order made on the hearing has not been perfected, the Court, if satisfied that it is just to do so, may re-hear the summons.

(4) Where an application made by summons has been dismissed without a hearing by reason of the failure of the party who took out the summons to attend the hearing, the Court, if satisfied that it is just to do so, may allow the summons to be restored to the list.

(5) Unless on the first hearing of a summons the Court disposes of the summons altogether, the Court shall give such directions as to the further conduct of the proceedings as it thinks best adapted to secure the just, expeditious and economical disposal thereof.

(6) The hearing of a summons by the Court may, if necessary, be adjourned from time to time, either generally or to a particular date, as may be appropriate, and the powers of the Court under paragraphs (1) to (5) of this rule may be exercised at any resumed hearing.

(7) Any summons may be heard in Chambers.

(8) Any summons being heard in Chambers may be adjourned into open court and any summons being heard in open court may be adjourned into Chambers.

(4) No fees shall be payable in respect of filing any other document or in respect of any step in any action or proceeding in the Summary Court.

11. Costs

(1) A plaint may be endorsed with a claim for fixed costs in the sum of $150 (one hundred and fifty dollars) plus the filing fee and the bailiff's fee for service and an order for this amount may be included in the default judgment given under Rule 7.

(2) Whenever the Court makes an order for costs (other than for fixed costs) the amount of such costs shall be assessed by the Magistrate at the time when the order is made.

(3) The Magistrate shall make his own assessment of the amount of legal fees and disbursements which he considers that a reasonable litigant is likely to have incurred and award that amount, provided that the total amount of costs awarded to any party in an action or proceeding shall not exceed -

- (a) CI$500 in the case of a judgment or order for a sum not exceeding CI$2,000;

- (b) CI$1,000 in the case of a judgment or order for a sum not exceeding CI$10,000; or
